There is no more effort to spread ill-will than by increasing the size of the WAR CRIMES, which is attempted, not by means of a fair and honest trial, but by the use of the press and the radio to create all who read it to a more self-righteous and angry attack upon the kingdom of the v

Salvation Army, and he gave me food and kept me for two days. I have never since had an opportunity of helping the Army; but now the opportunity has come, I give it willingly. It's not mine, it's yours—I'm only paying a just and honorable debt."

Now, I am one of the quiet Christians myself, and never heard any shouting in a religious meeting till I heard it in the army. but I can tell you I enjoyed Captain's dancing, and hearty shouting, and when he, Mother and Dad Florence and Capt. Howell were going around in that little circle, I felt it was in the Spirit, and I must confess, I wished that I had the courage to join them, for my soul was full of joy as I remembered John had done for me—saved, sanctified and delivered me from my old ideas of religion, and the torments Tro had as ever with strong water, still on face no good; be the same old still." The aim of Christianity is to free of the old sin. No holy water inked upon him will do the work; the man must be cast from the heart, and new man renewed in the image of God introduced. Christianity is entirely a heart-work. To be sure, heart and hand will manifest itself in external conduct, but it must be first in the heart. Heart is the matter of first importance.

I take great pleasure in reading the commissioner's tour west as I have been told that that road from Toronto to Vancouver, worked a long time on the C. P. R. between Winnipeg and Vancouver. I got nearly killed on the part of the road, where he said he went six miles and only made two. It was in a collision, and eight persons were killed outright. I saw many a who was convulsed, yet see would not yield.

“Friday I was baking a small loaf bread, and the Lord told me to make two and give one to her, so I did, and put it at the top of it the words ‘Get Saved.’ The before I put it in the oven, I knelt down and asked the Lord to back home the words with His power, and I firmly believed that it would be his means of salvation.” Praise God for the means of salvation! “I . . . preached her on Saturday as she said the words kept ringing in her ear.

testimony yesterday was—as far as that was from the west, God had removed him from him. There are many more who are to be cut and out, but they think that it is too much. Our prayer is that the all can that it is not all of life to live.

So forward is our battle cry,
The enemy to meet,
We have the heavenly armor on,
We never will retreat;
With Jesus as our leader.
